

So Far Away

-Agung Kurniawan-

Everytime, I always see you in my dream
Everytime, I always hear your voice in my heart
And everytime, I always feel you here

One day, I can't hear your voice

One day, I can't be together with you

And one day, I can't miss you again

You are my dream

You are my heart

You are my love

And then you let me go....

Lost but Not Last

-Alba Kamiba-

Hurt and beaten down, yet I stand tall
My friendship is broken
I try to be strong by the all
I shall never again be beacons by the lovers' call
Revitalized by my own heart and soul
I will study with emotional control
 Bitter, sweet memories of lovers' past
 Sometimes make me trauma to love a person
 But the power in my heart blotting out that feeling
 And make me say I will love a person
Powers and that feeling turn up when I meet you
You make everything felt be different
Because, you don't treat me like others
You like me as I am
You love my shortage
 Because of that I feel special
 My soul sinks on warm feeling
 Hug affection from you
I never shall move from you
Because I LOVE YOU, so DON'T HURT ME

Soul

-Alind Praditya Racha Chintya-

People can't know about you
You are like shadow in your mind
Sometimes when rain comes to the earth,
Your face draws on the cold air

Like thunderclap in my soul
Your soul slices my artery
Stand alone when many twisters in front of you
Your strength like eclipse in the dark

When I see your eyes
I see moon on daylight
I see strength of your soul
In your quiet mouth you make diamond at your mind

Gloomy of the Love

-Asih Rohani-

You said "Love is beauty"
You said "Love is godsend"
You said "Love is affection"
You said "Love is pie from the sky"

And you always say and say... there is no love, our live will be empty
there is no love, our live will be otiose there is no love, our live will die
there is no love, our live will be disappeared

But, why and why...??
by love many people who are agonized
by love many people become broken by love expectation becomes disappeared
by love soul will lose

love... love... and love....
I don't understand about love...
And I don't know what is love...

Lucky (0,1%)

-Danu Wijaya-

Dear God,
Is it my destiny...?
I life in durability...
Everything has possibility...

Dear God...
I pray to you...
I need your blessing...
I am nothing without You...

Dear God...
Give me a bravery...
Give me a best flattery
Give me a lucky...

God, I'll say something...
"please bring me to your heaven"
Because I die when I see her face...
"to say I love her"

Let Me Love You

-Dhemar Prinanda-

I'm thinking until morning
Without you I'm nothing
So, let me love you

Be patient for the best
And feel hopeless
But let me love you

Confidence at the choice
Stress for the real
But, let me love you

It is hard, when we aren't together
So let me love you
Until the end of the world
The end of time, and
The end of my life

So, let me love you, honey...
